THE EXPOSITION BROUGHT TO YOU

THIS IS WHAT THE "FOREST CITY" SERIES DOES FOR READERS OF THE STAR.

If you were offered the entire Louisiana Purchase Exposition, with its 1249 acres of gardens, lakes, plazas, waterways, vistas, colonnades, palaces, cascades and plateaus, including the giddy "Pike," on the condition that you were to remove it, you could not take advantage of the offer and accept it, could you?

There is a better way to enjoy it, however, which we point out to you in "The Forest City" series of World's Fair Art Portfolios.

This superb publication brings to your home the best of all that is to be seen and remembered at the $50,000,000 Exposition, with its miles of architecture, exhibits, art, sculpture and monuments. The complete work consists of thirty numbers, issued weekly, each number containing sixteen finest photographic reproductions, making a grand total of 480 views, with descriptions by Walter D. Simpson, Secretary of the Louisiana Purchase Exposition.

It should be borne in mind that the artistic presentation of the Exposition is a masterpiece of photography, and the reproductions in the portfolios are especially fine.

They are arranged in an expeditious and efficient manner, and the portfolios are in every way adapted to the needs of the collector.

Every one of our readers is entitled to a set of these beautiful and valuable portfolios, and it is certain that thousands will take advantage of the opportunity now presented.

In order to enjoy the full benefit of the offer, readers should begin with the first number and secure each portfolio as issued.

It should also be remembered that this is not a cheap publication but a work that you will be delighted to own and be glad to show to your friends.

The size of the portfolio itself is 11x14 inches, the photographic reproductions being 8x10 inches. The views and text are printed on beautiful white coated paper, with an artistic design on the cover, symbolizing the arts and crafts of our country and showing a view of the Grand Basin at the Exposition.

To obtain the work, it is only necessary to bring or send 10 cents with one of the coupons printed from day to day in our announcements. You can thus secure a fresh portfolio each week, until you have the complete set.

Don't miss a single number, and when the thirty Portfolios have been issued you will be the happy possessor of the only official photographic and descriptive record of the greatest Exposition the world has ever known. Part I now ready at Star office.

KAULUKOU WAS A BIG SUCCESS

A large and fashionable audience gathered in the Hawaiian Opera House on Saturday evening for the complimentary benefit to the well-known Hawaiian baritone, Lot Sebastian, Kaulukou, who is shortly to begin the professional stage for his career. The performance was under the direction of Annis Montague Turner, and was on the whole a decided success. First on the program was the prison scene from "Il Trovatore." Here, Paul Benberg sang Manrico, Kaulukou was the Count di Luna and Annis Montague Turner, Leonora. The presentation was really excellent. Mr. Benberg's rich tenor was never heard to better advantage and the duo between Manrico and Leonora has seldom been better handled than by him and Mrs. Turner. Kaulukou's Count di Luna showed every evidence of careful training.

Miss Gertrude Brown gave for a piano solo, Moszkowski's Op. 7 No. 3, a Valse in a manner that was highly applauded. Miss Ada Rhodes gave "The Pines of Rome" and Stanley Livingston sang "The Unchained Violets" and "King Charles."

The program was with the opera act of "The Forest City" series of World's Fair Art Portfolios. The first number of the series, "The Forest City" series of World's Fair Art Portfolios, was issued on Saturday evening.
